

Name _____

Underline all the adverbs in the sentences below. Draw an arrow to the words they modify.

1. Though the Empire State Building may be more famous, the Chrysler Building is the most beautifully decorated skyscraper in Manhattan.
2. The tower was elegantly designed by architect William Van Alen for automotive giant Walter P. Chrysler.
3. The structure consists of exactly 400,000 rivets and roughly 3.8 million bricks, all of which were manually laid.
4. Workers frantically raced to finish the tower, completing four levels per week.
5. Despite this very quick pace, contractors proudly boasted no workplace fatalities during its construction.
6. The Chrysler Building briefly held the title of world's tallest structure.
7. Just eleven months after its completion, the Empire State Building barely eclipsed its height owing to its cleverly placed spire.
8. Located just above Grand Central Terminal, the Chrysler building cheerily greets millions of commuting New Yorkers each day.
9. Singularly radiant, it is highly visible in the New York skyline from almost anywhere.
10. Whether standing in Central Park or approaching from the bridge, New Yorkers and tourists fully appreciate the stately grandeur of this landmark.