

Name _____

Find and label the complete and simple subject and predicate in each sentence. Label any complements. Then, state the classification of the sentence by its purpose.

1. One of the strangest phenomena of the 1980s was the rise of the “preppy.
2. “Preppies,” also called “preps,” were well-dressed young people known for wearing Polo and Izod and other ridiculous designer clothes.
3. Preppies radiated an image of affluence and success.
4. Most attended or pretended to attend elite prep schools, Ivy League Universities, or similar institutions.
5. Look through magazines from the 1980s.
6. How absurd that these people should appear on every page!
7. How could such a style gain popularity?
8. The 1980s were, indeed, a strange time.
9. Then again, it wasn’t all bad.
10. Some truly great people became famous in the 1980s.