

Name _____

---

Be sure to write your name and save a screenshot when you are done.

Underline the complete predicate in each sentence. Highlight the verbs or verb phrases.

1. Few movies from the 1980s are as iconic as Ferris Bueller's Day Off.
2. John Hughes wrote, produced, and directed the film in 1986.
3. The film follows three high school students on their adventures through Chicago.
4. Ferris, the charismatic leader of the group, convinces his friends to skip school and take a mint-condition Ferrari out on the town.
5. The film made great use of Chicago landmarks, including the Sears Tower, Art Institute, and Wrigley Field.
6. Ferris's friend Cameron Frye wears a Gordie Howe Detroit Red Wings jersey through much of the film.
7. Howe saw the film and sent the director an actual jersey from his playing days, saying he was grateful for his inclusion in the film.
8. To keep down costs, Hughes had to use a "fake" version of the Ferrari in his film.
9. This fake version failed to start during filming many times and ruined several takes.
10. Now almost thirty years old, the film remains a hit with audiences of all ages today.