

Name _____

Choose the correct pronoun to complete the sentence.

1. Each of my friends uses (his or her/their) personal technology in creative ways.
2. Most of us students take notes and prepare for exams with (my/our) tablets.
3. The teachers and students like the way (his or her/their) iPad can save time and paper.
4. The faculty members use (his or her/their) iPads to create lessons and engage students.
5. One of my students likes to use (her/their) iPad to create video tutorials to aid in understanding lessons.
6. Either the teacher or the students could create such material for (his or her/their) classes.
7. The audience for such video tutorials can view such material on (his or her/their) devices on individually.
8. Technology such as this is well worth (its/their) learning curve.
9. Who knows what students will do their (his or her/their) iPads in years to come?
10. Since technology is always changing, (it/they) remains a constant variable.